

What films do you like best?

Урок – дискуссия с использованием проектной деятельности

Войтова Е.М., учитель английского языка
высшей квалификационной категории
МОУ Магнитная СОШ

- Excellent outstanding reasonable impressive
- Rotten frightful lousy superb
- Fantastic magnificent nothing special sensational
- Touching entertaining educational informative
- Extraordinary horrible frightening boring

Name the main features of these genres:

When you agree, partially agree or disagree with your partner use these phrases:

I don't think that...
I can't agree that...
I completely disagree that...
I don't follow what you are saying about...
I'm sure that...

On the one hand...but on the other hand...
From my point of view
I suppose/consider/think
Frankly speaking...

I'm afraid you are right
It seems to me that...
In my opinion...
In additions

In conclusion
To sum up

Some facts about Russian and American cinematography

- A. Hollywood
 - 1. A Soviet film director best known for his fairy tales
- B. Alexander Rou
 - 2. A Russian film actor, director screenwriter. Among his works are such films Urga, Burn in the Sun
- C. Nikita Mikhalkov
 - 3. A US film director, writer and producer. His credits include such phenomenal box-office successes as Jurassic Park, Indianans Jones
- D. Eldar Ryazanov
 - 4. A Russian film director, screenwriter and playwright. he is one of the best masters of comedy. His well-known films are The Night of Carnival (Zigzag of Luck, Irony of Fate)
- E. Steven Spielberg
 - 5. The world capital of filmed entertainment “the factory of dreams”

Discussion

"What films do you like best?"

- Skills development.
- To practice giving arguments and counterarguments
- To practice exchanging opinions
- To practice peer evolution
- Ideas to develop:
- Entertainment
- Being addicted to romances
- Distracting from duties
- Violation of human rights
- Imitation violent behavior
- Teaching aggression
- Watching soap-operas is a waste of time